Rules and Regulations for the PGDCA Programme
(with effect from January 2024)

1. Eligibility for Admission.

1.1 Any person who possesses a Bachelor's Degree in any subject awarded by the Universities in Kerala or equivalent is eligible for admission to the Programme. There is no upper age limit for the admission to the programme. But the candidates belongs to SC/ST category and claims educational concession, the upper age limit will be as specified by the Scheduled Cast/Scheduled Tribes Development Department for awarding educational concession.

1.2 Each training centre will be treated as a separate unit and any request for transfer of training centre will not be normally considered.

2. Duration.

2.1 The PGDCA course comprises of two semesters, and each semester shall have maximum 5 months(18 to 20 weeks, including intervening holidays) of academic activities and 1 month for examination(including study leave period of one week). However, the Heads of Institutions shall decide the training schedule (ie. No. of days/week, course timing etc.) suitable for each Training Centre, so that academic activities can be completed as per the scheme, within the 5 months period from the date of commencement of semester classes.

2.2 The course will follow semester pattern, with an end semester examination conducted by IHRD. The medium of instruction in all the theory and practical subjects shall be English. There will be no vacation period in between semesters.

2.3 The course may be delivered in hybrid mode with both offline and online classes/sessions.

3. Registration for Semester Examination.

3.1 The semester Examinations will be conducted by the IHRD, immediately after the completion of each semester. The candidates have to appear for the semester examinations at the training centre itself and the request for change of exam centre will not be considered. In case, any exam centre is cancelled due to insufficient number of candidates, candidates of that centre will be re-allotted to the nearest examination centre.

3.2 Candidates who have secured a minimum of 75% attendance during the semester only are eligible for the registration for semester examination. The Heads of Institutions are authorized to grant the eligibility to appear for the examination, at his/her discretion, by condonation of the shortage of attendance up to 10% on valid reasons, on payment of the prescribed condonation fee. Students who have secured less than 65% attendance are not eligible to apply for "condonation", and will not be allowed to appear for the examination under any circumstances.

3.3 The student who has secured the minimum required attendance in any semester and has registered for the regular semester examination, will be treated as "completed the semester" and he/she will be eligible for promotion to the higher semester, if applicable. Students who have shortage of attendance, but not condoned, in any semesters are not eligible to be promoted to the higher semesters. In such cases, they may seek re- admission.

3.4 The registration of candidates for regular semester examinations will be conducted around mid-semester. The students have to apply for the examination registration through the Heads of Institutions in the prescribed format. Photo copies of the application forms can also be used. For the first semester regular examination registration, a copy of the SSLC certificate also should be attached along with the application for registration.

3.5 A candidate will be allotted a temporary registration for examination on receipt of his/her application for registration to the semester examination during the mid of semester. However, he/she will be eligible for appearing the examination only if he/she secures the required minimum attendance at the end of the semester. The registrations of the candidates who have not secured the minimum attendance stands cancelled automatically and the candidates will have no claim for appearing the examination on the basis of earlier temporary registration.

3.6 A candidate has up to four consecutive chances for appearing a semester examination starting from his/her first registration to the regular examination. All supplementary examinations conducted subsequent to a regular examination will be treated as a chance, irrelevant of the candidate has registered for those examinations or not.

3.7 If a candidate wishes to register for a supplementary examination beyond the permitted maximum chances, he/she has to obtain a written sanction for a special chance, from the Director, IHRD . The application for sanction of special chance shall be forwarded through the Head of training centre, at least one month before the registration period of next supplementary examination or within the announced schedule. A special sanction for appearing an exam will be granted only if, a scheduled exam on the same scheme is proposed to conduct in the next examination season and the candidate satisfies all other eligibility conditions. The candidate who gets special sanction to appear for a supplementary examination should enter the details of sanction order in the application form for registration. He/she has to remit the prescribed fee for special sanction along with the normal examination fees. The special sanction will be issued to students to pass the remaining failed papers in the semester altogether and piece meal appearance will not be permitted. The special sanction once granted is valid only for the supplementary examination mentioned in the order and cannot be utilized for any other subsequent examinations.

3.8 The candidates who wish to apply for the supplementary examination shall apply through the Head of Training centre in the prescribed format along with the payment of the required examination fee. Such a candidate is eligible for a valid registration, only if he/she is within the allowed maximum chance for appearing the semester examination or a special chance for appearing the semester examination is sanctioned by the Director of IHRD.

3.9 If later it is found that, any candidate who is not eligible for registration to a supplementary examination as per the rules, has applied for registration by mistake or covering the facts, his/her request for registration will be treated as void and the examination fee remitted shall be refunded by the Head of Training centre subsequently. The candidate has to apply for a refund within two months from the date of remittance, otherwise the amount will be treated as non-refundable. A candidate will have no claim for an examination registration on the basis of examination fee remittance, unless he/she satisfies all eligibility criteria as per the rules.

4. Examination rules

4.1 A candidate is eligible for attending second semester of the course, only if he/she completes the first semester course and has registered for the first semester regular examination.

4.2 Candidates who have not secured the minimum attendance during the semester or those who have failed for continuous evaluation, even for one subject have to repeat the semester by paying the prescribed semester fees.

4.3 The minimum marks required for a pass in each subject will be 50% of the maximum marks.(ie, for theory/practical(End Semester Assessment/ESA) and Continuous Evaluation(CE) put together.) However individual minimum of 40% is required for theory/practical(ESA) and Continuous Evaluation(CE) of each subject, separately.
